Lengthsman Mr. Terry Griffiths not present but report via email:-

“Roads - The scheduled maintenance schedule is on target and no major issues have been reported since our last meeting

We will be looking at ditch clearing as necessary once the main of the roadside hedges have been cut by the landowners

C1248 Welsh Newton Pitch We have been able to clear some of the lighter debris which is likely to contaminate the gully grids but we will need to clear with the skidsteer to ensure that these gullies remain open to take surface water and avoid the icing up problems we have in this area

We are now commencing the servicing of the blue grit pots and hope to have this completed by the time of the next meeting

Subject the council’s approval we will top up our salt storage sites at Lower Buckholt Farm and at The Pleck

Defect updates U71223 Newton Lodge Pitch Damaged ditch buttress

We have looked at this damage and will arrange for the locality steward to visit and consider whether it may be better to have this ditch piped and concreted over leaving jetting points along its length

The existing buttress has shallow foundation, we think the problem will constantly reoccur due to vehicles especially large ones rubbing against the buttress due to the road being narrow at this point

U71222 Welsh Newton Common Box Cottage-overhanging branches

We visited the site and met with the occupier who indicated the he would like the tree to be completely removed rather than have some of the branches cut back

As this would incur considerable cost I am referring the issue back to the council before proceeding with a costing

P 3 - We are slightly behind on our schedule but hope to complete the maintenance required on the Jubilee Walk shortly

Lo 14 Lower Buckholt Wood We are awaiting for the kissing gate to arrive from BBLP along with other materials that are on request

Once we have installed the gate and carried out the repair work using the materials requested we can have a review of remaining funds and prioritise any other work deemed necessary

7.0 To Receive Reports from:-

Ward Councillor

Ward Councillor Ms. E. Swinglehurst reported on the following:-

Report of Cllr. Elissa Swinglehurst 8th October 2015

“The big news is that the Core Strategy (Local Development Framework) is now back from the inspector and will be put before the full council on the 16th October. If the council votes to ratify the plan then it will become the adopted local plan and will be the touchstone for all planning and development in the county to 2031.

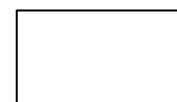

It has been a long time coming; changes to government policy, ministerial statements and modifications have all had to be taken account of and consulted upon. If adopted it will direct the growth of the county and should mean that the absence of a five year housing supply is no longer an issue. This means that the kind of speculative development we have seen so much of can no longer set aside the local plan in favour of the National Planning Policy Framework.

I see planning policy as a kind of three legged stool – the NPPF, the Local Plan and the Neighbourhood Development Plans combining to ensure economic growth, delivery on housing targets and a meaningful role for parishes to direct the kind of development locally. For some time this has been a one legged stool, the local plan being a bit prone to woodworm and the Neighbourhood Development Plan absent. Now we should have a two legged stool and soon a three legged one. Many Neighbourhood plans are at or close to reg 14, some are at reg 16 and I think that as soon as the Core Strategy is adopted we will see a number of NDPs come through to full expression.

The Core Strategy policies that most effect the Parish of Welsh Newton and Llanrothal are:

Housing development RA2, RA3 – in brief, the village of Welsh Newton Common is identified as a settlement that can accommodate proportionate housing growth (table 4:21). In this area (the Ross on Wye HMA) that minimum percentage growth is 14% and can be allocated within the identified settlements, in this case Welsh Newton Common, with additional exceptional windfall sites elsewhere. The Neighbourhood Development Plan must be in general conformity with the National and local plans for it to pass inspection; the basic premise of ‘a presumption in favour of sustainable development’ contained within the NPPF coupled with the 14% minimum housing target for the parish and RA2/3 of the Core Strategy must inform the NDP.

Due to planning permissions granted since 2011 – principally exception and windfall sites away from the common – the minimum target is all but met. However, the idea is not to constrain or prevent villages from being able to grow so this does not preclude any other applications coming forward to exceed the growth target.

A copy of the Core Strategy, the inspector's modifications and comments are available on the Herefordshire County Website.

Other news:

I have been asked to join the Overview and Scrutiny Committee in addition to my responsibilities on the Planning Committee. The latter is very busy at the moment with full day meetings being the norm.

The budget consultation has now come to an end and the comments that were made will be put forward into the process. The stark reality is that the council is legally obliged to balance the budget. We have various ways of doing this: borrow more money, spend less money, sell assets or increase income. Given that the bulk of the budget is not discretionary (adult care, child safeguarding, statutory responsibilities) then there will inevitably be intense pressure to cut funding to non-statutory areas (culture, some street cleaning etc.).

The announcement at the Conservative Party Conference that govt funding to local councils will reduce to zero did not come as a surprise and it is on this assumption that the figures going forward have been predicated. What was news (to me at least) was the intention to allow local authorities to retain 100% of their tax income. I shall be finding out what the implications of this will be in due course but the most obvious comment has to be that, as a county, we must seek to increase our business base. It is to this end that the Conservative led council has put in place a strategy for economic growth, is supporting a major road building scheme to deliver full benefit from the enterprise zone, is supporting the new university and has brought jobs and business into Hereford with the hugely successful (and much opposed) retail park.

The migrant crisis has been much in the news. The heart breaking picture of the dead body of toddler Aylan Kurdi washed up like so much flotsam on a Turkish beach pricked the conscience of the world. Herefordshire Council has communicated a willingness to take some refugees but we are awaiting details from government regarding funding and needs. At such moments it is easy to give into the impulse to help without regard for the practical details but we must be certain that we are able to provide the kind of support that these children and families will need. Individuals are encouraged to show their support for the refugees caught up in this crisis through the usual charitable organisations.”
